

Do not rate yourself. Give a score from 0 (terrible) to 10 (excellent) on each of:

Quality of Presentation. Consider things like

- They made sense.
- They used time appropriately, and stayed between 10 and 17 minutes.
- They were well-prepared to present.
- The displayed slides conveyed information effectively.

Quality of Contents. Consider things like

- The analysis and logic are correct.
- The methods used are not (all) trivial.
- They extracted interesting or important information from the data (or showed none is present).

Overall rating. Consider things like

- They convinced you that they deserve a good grade for the work they did.
